Cookie Policy -- Hartnett Academy

Updated March, 2022

The Hartnett Group, LLC uses cookies on our web properties (HartnettSolutions.com, HartnettAcademy.com) (the "Service"). By using the Service, you consent to the use of cookies. Our Cookies Policy explains what cookies are, how we use cookies, how third-parties we may partner with may use cookies on the Service, your choices regarding cookies and further information about cookies.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small pieces of text sent by your web browser by a website you visit. A cookie file is stored in your web browser and allows the Service or a third-party to recognize you and make your next visit easier and the Service more useful to you.

How do we use cookies?

We use cookies for important reasons, such as:

- To provide a great experience for your visitors and customers.
- To identify registered members (users who registered to the site).
- To monitor and analyze the performance, operation, and effectiveness of the site platform.
- To ensure our platform is secure and safe to use.

Third-party cookies

In addition to our own cookies, we may also use various third-party cookies to report usage statistics of the Service.

What are your choices regarding cookies?

If you'd like to delete cookies or instruct your web browser to delete or refuse cookies, please visit the help pages of your web browser. Please note, however, that if you delete cookies or refuse to accept them, you might not be able to use all of the features we offer.

Types of Cookies

In general, the cookies placed on our websites can mostly be categorized as essential cookies. Essential cookies are a site's basic form of memory, used to store the settings selected by a user. As the name implies, they are essential to a website's functionality and cannot be disabled by users. For example, an essential cookie may be used to prevent visitors from having to log in each time they access a new webpage in the same session.
